1. Standing as a sign for travelers en route Triumphantly traversing the great river is Kintaikyo
Transforming the pride of the hometown into wings of great delight Children spread their wings with hope that cannot be held down
And take to flight

Chasing after dreams, such distant their dreams

2. Showered by the light of the great spacious sky Lying at full length sparkling on the land below is Nishikigawa
Softly murmuring, the river's song joins hearts together to sing
Living with each other gladly sharing all along
The same blessing

In this beautiful town, this beautiful town
